

NEW BERLIN, OHIO. Feb. 4, 1894

DEAR EDITOR:—I like to hunt up the questions that are asked in the children's column. I will answer Dessa Saygers question. Ezra 7: 21 has all the letters of the alphabet but j. I will also answer Homer Harrison's question. The first martyr was Abel but the first Christian martyr was Stephen. If my answers are not correct, please excuse me, for this is the first time I tried. Which is the middle verse of the Bible?

MAUD E. HERSHEY.

Maud, get the dictionary and find the meaning of the word martyr, and then tell us in your next if Abel was a martyr.

LOUISVILLE, O. Feb. 17, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—We had convention here on Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Jones was president. I go to school every day. I go to Sunday school very Sabbath. My teacher's name is Miss. Vina Snyder. Mr. David Weirich is Superintendent. I am ten years old. We have good sledding. We had a revival meeting, and received eight members. I joined too.

Yours Truly.

MORRIS KIMMEL.

Christ said of the children, "Let them come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Learn of him, and perhaps some day we may hear you preach.

LA PAZ IND. Feb. 14, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am nine years old. I love to go to Sunday school. I am in the third grade at school. I have two sisters—one older and one younger than myself. My papa and mamma are members of the Brethren church. I. N. Miller is our minister. We like him very much.

Yours Truly.

MABEL ROUCH.

We hope you will be a member of the Brethren church some day, Mabel.

STOCK PORT, IND.

DEAR EDITOR:—I think it is nice we can have a page for our own. I like to read the children's letters. I will try for the contest, to write a letter each month. I will send a dime, to help pay the Bro. Holsinger debt. I am sorry to hear of the illness, of Homer Harrison. We have had much nice sleighting. We had a pleasant surprise on one of our school mates, this week that is going to California.

Your Friend.

IVA RENCH.

When our friends leave us, it is well if we have them think only of the pleasant hours of our association. We wish more of the children would send a dime for Bro. Holsinger.

AKRON, IND. Feb. 18, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I saw in last EVANGELIST that by writing a letter each month this year, I would get a present. So here is one letter. Papa got a letter from Bro. Hopkins, that the protracted meeting began at Disko Friday night.

Yours Truly.

MAUD HOFFMAN.

We want to get letters from all the children, and we want them to tell something that other people would like to know. The space in the EVANGELIST, is too valuable to use any other way.

GOSHEN, IND. Feb. 19, 1894

DEAR EDITOR:—We were all glad to hear that Homer is getting better. One of my little cousins died about two weeks ago. He was skating, on Saturday; in the evening he took sick; on the next Friday he died; and was buried on Sunday. His little friends brought lovely flowers. We take the King's Children paper, and think it is very nice

Yours Respectfully.

ELSIE SMITH.

The young may die as well as the old. To be ready is the great question.

LANARK, ILL. Feb. 19, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—We are having a series of meetings now, by Brother Livengood. There have been four baptized already. I was one of the four. Two more came forward yesterday. We are having good meetings and a full house every night. We are glad to hear that Homer is getting better. Bro. Sheller instructed us in the Junior King's Children last evening.

GRACE A. OVERCASH.

Now you are one of the King's children in deed and truth. Always follow his word and he will always be pleased to own you.

SULLIVAN, OHIO. Feb. 18, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have only missed two days and a half of school. I am twelve years old. My mamma is dead; my papa lives in Cleveland. I am staying with my aunt. My papa and sister belong to the Brethren church. She is seventeen years old. I love to read the children's letters. We have church every other Sunday. H. S. Jacobs is our pastor.

MYRTLE S. HART.

A well written letter, Myrtle. We hope you obey your aunt, and will make a good and useful woman.

LOGANSFORT, IND. Feb. 5, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am nine years old. I go to school every day. I like my teacher very much. Our school enrolls two hundred and eight scholars. I go to the United Brethren Sunday school. My papa and mamma belong to the Brethren church. I love to read the children's letters. I have two sisters and one little brother.

This is a good letter in every respect, except that it was written with a lead pencil.

HOMER, OHIO. Feb. 4, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am nine years old and have two brothers—one older and one younger than I. I stay with my grandma, and can read the children's letters. Mamma belongs to the Brethren church. Protracted meeting commenced to-night at the Brethren church. Brother Jacobs is our preacher.

MARY W. BARNES.

We hope you had a good meeting. Tell us about it.

HERINGTON, KANS., Feb. 20, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write for the EVANGELIST. I am eleven years old. I belong to the Brethren church. We have no church here. We go to the Christian Sunday school. Mr. Kennell is our superintendant, Mr. Bush the assistant superintendant. My teacher is Miss Neale. We are learning verses for prizes in our class. My teacher at school is Miss Williams. I am in the seventh grade. I am going to send a dime for Bro. Holsinger. I will close by asking a question. Where is the word of God called a mirror and why?

HANNA NIELSEN.
